

The haunting true story of George Crabbe, East Anglia's greatest poet.

Forgotten

A NEW PLAY BY RAY RUMSBY

The Stuff of Dreams Theatre Company's Spring Tour 2016

Touring 1 April - 27 May | stuffofdreamstheatre.com |     /StuffofDreamsCo

In youth, he struggled against prejudice and personal circumstance; in marriage, the loss of five beloved children and his wife's progressive mental illness; in his work, he shocked the rich with scenes of poverty and poorhouses.

Forgotten is the Stuff of Dreams Theatre Company's new original production for spring, telling the true story of doctor, botanist, vicar and storyteller, George Crabbe.

But as the horrific verse tale of his most famous poetic creation Peter Grimes unfolds, his own situation worsens...
